Butterworth, Jess - When the Mountains Roared

Ruby is forced to leave Australia in order to set up a hotel in the Himalayas. She grows to love the area and fights to protect the local animals from poachers. The story has a great sense of place. It also covers such issues as dealing with death, overcoming fears as well as the conservation message. Would read well aloud as chapters are short and story is fast paced.

CF

Cooke, Tamsin - Stunt Double

Finn becomes a stunt double. However he finds his life is in danger when the stunts he is doing for a film become progressively more dangerous. A fun, fast paced adventure story with a likeable main character and subject matter that has great appeal.

Daykin, Chloe - Fish Boy

Billy has got a lot on his mind so he takes up wild swimming and manages to communicate with fish. Although this story deals with depression and sickness, it does so sensitively. The dreamlike quality of the writing might not appeal to everyone yet this is a memorable and thought provoking book.

Elphinstone, Abi - Sky Song

This is a story about an eagle huntress, an inventor and an organ made of icicles. But it is also a story about belonging and the value of diversity. The plot itself is a standard quest story with plenty of obstacles to overcome and dangers to escape from. There's also a strong magical element and a well realised setting. Fantastic read.
